

Do you know how to catch the best opportunities?

Opportunities come and go. But there is a way for you to never pass up our latest services, actions and special offers. Now you have the opportunity to choose the desired communication between you and your bank and adjust it to suit your wishes and needs. Be among the first to learn all about the new options and opportunities tailor-made for you.

You want to know what concerns you at the right time?

We can send you notifications and updates, but if you wish, we can be even more precise, with offers that suit you best.

Better contacting

Better contacting means receiving bank notifications through different channels of communication. This includes various notices from the bank and information about news in the offer of our products and services or about new conditions for the existing offers.

Specially for me

Specially for me refers to those bank offers that are personalized and designed specifically for you, such as: separate offers, offers of special products, special conditions, prize contests, etc. *
